Denies a Charge and Makes One.

In the divorce suit of John P. Harris against Lizzie K. Harris, an answer was filed yesterday by Mrs. Harris. She denies the charge made against her and Samuel Harris, and insists that since her marriage, August 20, 1890, her husband treated her cruelly. He finally deserted her September 19, 1891. She asks that the suit be dismissed.

A WOMAN PASSED THE BILL.

The Female Agent of a Band of Italian Counterfeiters Caught in Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 6.—Captain Porter, of the Secret Service, yesterday succeeded in having held to the Federal grand jury a woman who he believes has been acting as an agent for a gang of counterfeiters which has been circulating bogus $5 treasury notes in large quantities. The woman is Mrs. Annie Nassi.

The note is a rather poor lithographic imitation of the $5 United States note of 1880, series "A," and signed by J. N. Huston, Treasurer. The scroll work and line engraving on the edges are defective. The paper is also thicker than the genuine. While the whole bill would be accepted by many without question, Captain Porter believes the notes are made in a distant part of the country and sent to Italian confederates in this and other cities to be put into circulation.

In reply thereto I beg leave to tender my thanks for your kind expressions containing therein relation to Tammany, and beg leave to also add that Tammany Hall will at the ensuing election prove her devotion to Democratic principles by the sturdy support which she will give to Cleveland and Stevenson, and which will be the means of placing in the White House March 4 next. With assurances of esteem, I am, sincerely yours, RICHARD CROKER.

PROFETILES A SUCCES.

The Recent Experiments With the Justin Device Reported to Be Satisfactory. WASHINGTON, D. C., July 6.—With full acknowledgments of shortcomings and allowance for drawbacks, the recent trials of the Justin projectile must be pronounced, as far as they went, a success, says a report of the Ordnance Board. This means a great deal, of course, not only for the inventor but the art of warfare and especially for the defensive preparations of the United States. In place of the slow mortar-like discharge of the pneumatic tube which makes accuracy less attainable, especially when used on shipboard and in a vessel's change of position before the shot arrives, we find this new weapon capable of ordinary horizontal shell firing. The limited range, also, of torpedoes and pneumatic tubes exposes the vessels that carry them to a heavy fire from long range guns before their missiles can be used. Justin's device is interesting as dealing with the problem of the projectile rather than of the powder, but the two can be combined, and it is clear that the safe use of high explosives in the shells of powder will be accomplished.

CHINESE IN CANADA.

The Exclusion Question is Discussed in the Dominion Parliament. OTTAWA, Ont., July 6.—Chinese immigration was discussed in Parliament yesterday. The Government adopted, with certain amendments, the bill introduced by Mr. Gordon, M. P., of British Columbia, to restrict Chinese immigration. Mr. Gordon, in a vigorous speech, protested against the Chinese evil on the Pacific Coast. He said young men from the East, when brought in competition with Chinese labor, soon left the province. He regarded the Chinese as a dangerous element. The bill will be further considered to-morrow. Mr. Chapleau, Minister of Customs, has promised to adopt new regulations which will prevent traffic in bogus Chinese return certificates.

TWO OF ONE FAMILY MISSING.

Strange Story of an Abduction During the Great Chicago Fire. CHICAGO, July 6.—In reporting a missing child to the police Mrs. C. H. Burgess told a strange story of the abduction and recovery of a son before the big Chicago fire. Yesterday she said her 3-year-old daughter Kittie wandered away from home, and she is nearly distracted because the little one had not returned. "It was just 21 years ago," she told the police, "that my son Eddie was stolen from me and for a long time I could find no trace of him. One day, as my sister was visiting friends at a hotel in Milwaukee, she saw a little boy playing in the parlor who very closely resembled my son. She asked him his name and he promptly replied, 'Eddie.' She noticed that he had a hair lip. Then she knew it was my son, and the woman who had taken him and who was then at the hotel, seeing that he had found his people, left the city before I could notify the police. And now I am afraid that someone has stolen Kittie. I have a presentiment that she too is gone."
